Malaysia & S'pore positioned to gain from global growth in 2022

“ Better outlook for banking sector as economy recovers ”

According to Moody's Analytics, Malaysia and Singapore are positioned to gain from global growth in 2022. Both countries have been cautious in opening their borders to travellers despite being among the most aggressive with fiscal policy support for their economies over the past year. Malaysia is in the midst of an emergency order banning interstate travel. China and its linkages through supply chains in Asia Pacific (APAC) and the rest of the world could help Asia lead the economic recovery, much as it did following the global financial crisis of 2008-2009. The focus on getting the production side of the economy back on track effectively allowed manufacturing to spark China's recovery beginning in the second quarter of 2020, and lifted surrounding Asian economies in the quarter, as they eased up on many movement restrictions. Vietnam, Malaysia, Taiwan and Indonesia are among the countries that have benefitted from the carry condition of China's growing trade demand. Regional trade between China and the rest of APAC also depends upon stable demand for goods from Europe and North America. The expected passage of the second United States' stimulus bill strengthens the outlook for imports of goods into the US. However, demand for goods in Europe is at higher risk, at least in the near term. Trade with China last year grew in percentage terms in double digits in Vietnam, Malaysia, Taiwan, Indonesia, Hong Kong, Japan, Thailand and Singapore. It should be noted that this trade alone is not enough to guarantee full economic recovery. Containment of the Covid-19 pandemic also is a necessary condition, which neither Indonesia nor Malaysia have yet managed to achieve. While China's recovery momentum boosted trade across APAC, the sustainability of regional export flows remains contingent on the collective effort to control the Covid-19 pandemic. Indonesia, Philippines and Malaysia continue to struggle and may require more fiscal support, since they also run risks of additional quarantines or movement controls in coming months. Aside from trade linkages, vaccination rates will further differentiate patterns of economic growth in 2020 but remains difficult to monitor in Asia, because of the little data available from consolidated sources.

Better outlook for banking sector as Malaysia's economy recovers

According to Maybank IB Research, the economic recovery is expected to bode well for the banking sector with loan growth forecast to pick up pace to 3.8% in 2021 versus 3.4% last year. It attributed the growth to stable household loan growth and a pick-up in corporate lending. Loan growth could be stronger if not for the blanket loan moratorium from April to September 2020, which resulted in lower loan repayments during the period and which have since resumed. Maybank IB's economics team projects a gross domestic product (GDP) growth of 5.1% for the year. At the same time, it forecast aggregate core net profit to accelerate 19% year-on-year (y-o-y) this year and return on equity (ROE) to average a higher 8.6% versus 7.6% in 2020, improving to 9.2% in 2022. Fixed deposits had gradually repriced since the last rate cut in 2020 and should fully reprice this year. Moreover, current account savings account (CASA) growth was spectacular in 2020, allowing banks to lower their overall funding cost. As such the average net interest margin (NIM) for banks in their coverage is expected to improve 4 basis points (bps) on average in 2021, after having contracted by an estimated 10bps in 2020. Last year saw a cumulative 125bps cut in the Overnight Policy Rate (OPR) to a low of 1.75%. This coupled with modification losses in the second quarter of last year (2Q20), contributed to a sharp NIM compression of about 38bps on average for the banks in its coverage, from 2.22% in 4Q19 to a low of 1.84% in 2Q20, before recovering to 2.08% in 3Q20. NIM is a measure of the difference between the interest income generated by banks and the amount of interest paid out for deposits. Due to declining bond yields, banks' earnings also saw much support from investment gains in 2020. As a result of the prevailing payment relief plans (PRP), the industry's impaired loans ratio is unlikely to peak until the second half of the year. Bank Negara's stress test in 2020 had projected a rise in the banking system's gross impaired loans (GIL) ratio to 3.1% end-2020 and 4.1% end-2021. As at end-2020, the banking industry's GIL ratio was just 1.57%, distorted in part by exemptions from having to classify PRP loans as impaired. What is more critical nevertheless, is that banks continue to provide prudently for risk. Credit cost jumped in 2020 as banks pre-emptively provided for economic risks through macro-economic variable adjustments as well as potential bad debt through higher management

The credit cost for the banks in coverage is expected to remain high at 51bps in 2021, as compared to 22-30bps in 2018-2019, though marginally lower than 77bps in financial year (FY) 2020. Dividend per share (DPS) projections for FY20 are lower y-o-y across the board, mainly because of the lower earnings projected for FY20, coupled with conservatively lower payout ratios for all banks, except Public Bank Bhd, for which earnings risks are deemed to be low, given its superior loan loss coverage of 362%, including regulatory reserves. Nevertheless, with their strong capital positions, it is possible that banks' payout ratios could surprise positively.

Securities Commission & Bursa Malaysia offer more temporary relief measures for listed issuers

The Securities Commission Malaysia (SC) and Bursa Malaysia announced temporary relief measures for listed issuers, including extension of time to submit financial statements and relief to listed issuers with unsatisfactory financial conditions and inadequate levels of operations, in addition to those introduced in 2020. These additional measures will allow listed issuers more time to prepare their financial statements and put in place regularisation plans amid the Covid-19 pandemic. The first measure is an extension of time to submit financial statements. This means an automatic one-month extension for the issuance of quarterly and annual reports for the Main and ACE Markets as well as semi-annual and annual audited financial statements for the LEAP Market, which are due on Feb 28, March 31, or April 30 respectively. Notwithstanding the one-month extension, listed issuers are reminded to comply with the disclosure obligations under the Listing Requirements, including making immediate announcements of any material information to ensure that shareholders and investors have access to information in a timely manner. The second measure is relief to listed issuers with unsatisfactory financial conditions and inadequate levels of operations. This includes a 12-month relief period for a listed issuer that has announced between Jan 1 and June 30, that it has insignificant business or operations. This relief allows such listed issuer to reassess its condition at the end of the relief period before making the requisite announcements. It allows for a 24-month regularisation timeframe, instead of 12 months, for a listed issuer that has announced between Jan 1 and June 30, that it has ceased all or major business or operations; or is classified as a PN17/GN3 listed issuer. It also allows an 18-month relief period, instead of 12 months as announced on April 16, 2020, for a listed issuer that had triggered the suspended PN17 or GN3 criteria between April 17, 2020 and June 30, 2021. A listed issuer will not be classified as a PN17/GN3 listed issuer during this period and is allowed to reassess its financial condition at the end of the relief period before making the requisite announcements. The SC and Bursa Malaysia will continue to monitor ongoing developments and assess if further measures will be required to support listed issuers during this challenging period.
